EXPLANATORY INFORMATION AND DEFINITIONS

Appendix A contains the Explanatory Information and Definitions Leaflet which explains how this Wales Fixed Term Standard Contract works for you. Please ensure you carefully read this and all parts of the contract.

A. My Obligations as the Contract-Holder to The Landlord/The Manging Agent are:

Financial Matters

A 1

I agree to pay the Rent in full for the whole Fixed Term, in the instalments and on the dates stated on page 1, whether or not I receive a formal request from the Landlord.

A 1.1 (S)

If I request a receipt, within 14 days of that request the Landlord must provide me with a written receipt of any Rent, or other consideration, paid or provided under the Contract.

A 1.2 (S)

Should the Contract come to an end in the middle of a rental period, the Landlord must repay, within a reasonable time, to me any Rent which relates to any period falling after the date on which this Contract ends. For the purposes of this clause, if a whole period's Rent has been paid then the Rent shall be return on a pro-rata basis from the last day of the Contract to the end of the period for which payment was made. A daily rate of rent is determined by calculating the annual rent then dividing that figure by 365 (days of the year) and rounding to the nearest penny.

A 2

I agree to pay the following extra sums:

- (a) Where I have failed to clean the Premises or Shared Area or have caused damage, the reasonable costs of cleaning, redecoration, repair and replacement in accordance with clause A9.
- (b) Any costs incurred by the Landlord arising from my breach of this Contract (including legal fees and court costs);
- (c) Interest will be applied after 7 calendar days at a rate of 3% above the Bank of England base rate to any outstanding rent for each day since the rent payment has been outstanding.

A3

I am responsible for obtaining a licence for any television and/or any other device in the Premises, and (jointly with other occupiers of the Building) in the Shared Area unless provided by Landlord/The Manging Agent as a specific local promotion

Condition and Maintenance

A 4 (S)

I accept the Premises, the Shared Area, the Premises Items and Shared Items as being present and in good repair and condition, unless I inform the Landlord/The Manging Agent to the contrary in writing within 48 hours of moving-in. Once I am provided with a copy of the inventory at the start of the Contract, if no disagreements are raised within 7 days of the start of the Contract, then I agree that the inventory is an accurate reflection of the condition of the Property.

A 5 (S)

I will use the Premises, the Shared Area and all Premises Items and Shared Items carefully and keep them in at least as good a condition as at the start of the Contract. I am not responsible for:

- (a) Fair wear and tear caused by normal use;
- (b) Any matters that are the Landlord's repairing obligations unless such damage is caused by any action or inaction on my part (see below); nor
- (c) Any damage covered by the Landlord's insurance policy for the Building so long as the policy is not vitiated / invalidated as a result of any action or inaction on my part or any occupiers or guests or visitors.

A 6 (S)

I will not:

- (a) Mark or change the decorative finish of the Premises or Shared Area;
- (b) Make any alteration to the fabric or surfaces of the Premises or the Shared Area;
- (c) Apply sticky tape or 'blu-tack' or similar adhesive on the walls;
- (d) Stick pins, nails or screws into the walls;
- (e) Flush sanitary items down the toilet;
- (f) Pour oil or grease down the drains nor do anything else likely to block or harm the drains;
- (g) Remove any Premises Item or Shared Item.

A 7

I will endeavour to not adversely affect the environmental performance of the building and will endeavour to minimise its impact by:

- (a) Utilising the equipment in the way it was designed;
- (b) Following the "Sustainable Living Guide" available on the website <https://www.thisisfresh.com/student/faqs>;
- (c) Following the waste management procedure (waste segregation and recycling provisions) implemented in the building;
- (d) Appropriately disposing of electrical items, printer cartridges, fluorescent bulbs, batteries and similar items.

A 8

I will keep the Premises and the Premises Items hygienically clean and tidy throughout the Fixed Term. I will, jointly with the other occupiers of the Building, keep the Shared Area and the Shared Items hygienically clean and tidy throughout the Fixed Term.

A 9

I am responsible for any damage I cause to the Building (including the Premises, the Shared Area, the Premises Items and Shared Items and all furnishings, fixtures and fittings) other than damage covered and recoverable from the Landlord's insurance policy for the Building.

A 10

If

- (a) The Premises, the Shared Area or any Premises Item or Shared Item is not hygienically clean and tidy; or
- (b) There has been damage to the Premises, the Shared Area or any Premises Item or Shared Item for which I am wholly or partly responsible; or
- (c) I have caused a blockage of the drains by breaching clause A6; or

(d) I cause damage to any other part of the Building (including any furnishings, fittings or equipment), then I agree that at any time during and at the end of the Fixed Term the Landlord may:

- (a) Make a charge for the reasonable costs of cleaning, redecoration, and repair of the Building (including the Premises and the Shared Area) and of cleaning, repair and, where necessary, replacement of any broken doors, windows or furnishings, fittings and equipment; and
- (b) Deduct such charge from the Contract Deposit under the rules in Schedule 2; and if there is a shortfall I will immediately pay the balance.

A 11

Where I am responsible for a charge jointly with others, the Managing Agent will assess the proportion for which I am responsible.

A 12 (S)

I will not attempt to carry out any repairs, but will report to the Managing Agent in writing any damage as soon as possible.

Use

A 13

I will move into the Premises within 4 weeks of the start of the Fixed Term.

A 14

Only I am allowed to live in the Premises. I will not assign the Contract nor sublet the Premises nor allow others to share or occupy it without the Landlord's consent in writing, such consent which will not be unreasonably withheld.

A 15

I will only use the Premises and the Shared Area for private residential purposes.

A 16 (S)

I will inform the Managing Agent if I am likely to be absent from the Premises for more than 7 days (I appreciate this is important for fire safety and security reasons).

A 17

I will inform the Managing Agent immediately if I cease to be a student in higher education; and I will pay (or indemnify the Landlord for) any Council Tax charge that may be imposed as a result. It is my responsibility as Contract-Holder to make suitable arrangements with the local authority regarding exemption from liability for council tax. If I fail to do so and therefore council tax payments are required, it will be my responsibility to pay these charges.

A 18

I will not smoke anywhere in the Building, nor on the roads, paths or pavements immediately outside the Building.

A 29

I will not do anything or fail to do something which might invalidate any insurance policy for the Building or its contents or which might entitle the insurers to refuse to pay out any part of an insurance claim, or which might increase the insurance premium.

A 30

The Landlord will not insure any belongings not belonging to the Landlord. I am responsible for arranging suitable insurance cover for my own belongings if cover is required.

Schedule 6 - Estate Management Grounds (F+)

Ground A (building works)

The Landlord intends, within a reasonable time of obtaining possession of the Premises— (a) to demolish or reconstruct the building or part of the building comprising the Premises, or (b) to carry out work on that building or on land treated as part of the Premises, and cannot reasonably do so without obtaining possession of the Premises.

Ground B (redevelopment schemes)

This ground arises if the Premises satisfies the first condition or the second condition.

The first condition is that the Premises is in an area which is the subject of a redevelopment scheme approved in accordance with Part 2 of Schedule 8 to the Act, and the Landlord intends within a reasonable time of obtaining possession to dispose of the Premises in accordance with the scheme.

The second condition is that part of the Premises is in such an area and the Landlord intends within a reasonable time of obtaining possession to dispose of that part in accordance with the scheme, and for that purpose reasonably requires possession of the Premises.

Ground C (charities)

The Landlord is a charity and the Contract holder's continued occupation of the Premises would conflict with the objects of the charity.

But this ground is not available to the Landlord ("L") unless, at the time the Contract was made and at all times after that, the person in the position of Landlord (whether L or another person) has been a charity.

In this clause, "charity" has the same meaning as in the Charities Act 2011(1) (see Section 1 of that Act).

Ground D (Premises suitable for disabled people)

The Premises has features which are substantially different from those of ordinary Premises and which are designed to make it suitable for occupation by a physically disabled person who requires accommodation of a kind provided by the Premises and— (a) there is no longer such a person living in the Premises, and (b) the Landlord requires the Premises for occupation by such a person (whether alone or with members of that person's family).

Ground E (housing associations and housing trusts: people difficult to house)

The Landlord is a housing association or housing trust which makes Premises available only for occupation (whether alone or with others) by people who are difficult to house, and— (a) either there is no longer such a person living in the Premises or a local housing authority has offered the Contract-Holder a right to occupy another Premises under a secure Contract, and (b) the Landlord requires the Premises for occupation by such a person (whether alone or with members of that person's family).

A person is difficult to house if that person's circumstances (other than financial circumstances) make it especially difficult for them to satisfy their need for housing

Ground F (groups of Premises for people with special needs)

The Premises constitutes part of a group of Premises which it is the practice of the Landlord to make available for occupation by persons with special needs and— (a) a social service or special facility is provided in close proximity to the group of Premises in order to assist persons with those special needs, (b) there is no longer a person with those special needs living in the Premises, and (c) the Landlord requires the Premises for occupation by a person who has those special needs (whether alone or with members of their family).

UNDER-OCCUPATION GROUNDS

Ground G (reserve successors)

The Contract-Holder succeeded to the occupation contract under Section 73 of the Act as a reserve successor (see Sections 76 and 77 of the Act), and the accommodation comprised in the Premises is more extensive than is reasonably required by the Contract holder.

Ground H (joint Contract-Holders)

This ground arises if the first condition and the second condition are met.

The first condition is that a joint Contract holder's rights and obligations under the Contract have been ended in accordance with— (a) Section 138 (withdrawal) of the Act, or (b) Section 225, 227 or 230 (exclusion) of the Act.

The second condition is that— (a) the accommodation comprised in the Premises is more extensive than is reasonably required by the remaining Contract-Holder (or Contract holders), or (b) where the Landlord is a community Landlord, the remaining Contract-Holder does not (or the remaining Contract-Holders do not) meet the Landlord's criteria for the allocation of housing accommodation.

OTHER ESTATE MANAGEMENT REASONS

Ground I (other estate management reasons)

This ground arises where it is desirable for some other substantial estate management reason that the Landlord should obtain possession of the Premises.

An estate management reason may, in particular, relate to— (a) all or part of the Premises, or (b) any other premises of the Landlord to which the Premises is connected, whether by reason of proximity or the purposes for which they are used, or in any other manner.

Appendix A

EXPLANATORY INFORMATION AND DEFINITIONS

Welcome to the Wales Fixed Term Standard Contract produced by Dutton Gregory Solicitors in response to the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016 as amended (“the Act”). You should keep this document somewhere safe as it will govern your relationship both with the Landlord of your new home, and with the Managing Agent for the whole of the time that you are in residence. It will also set out the rights and obligations of both you and the Landlord. As such you should read the document carefully and raise any queries with the Landlord or Managing Agent. As this is a Fixed Term Standard Contract, it will last for a specified period of time. If you remain in occupation beyond the fixed term then the Contract will become a ‘periodic’ Contract which means it will continue on the same terms as the original contract until one party gives notice to the other, although certain terms can be varied during a periodic contract.

The Landlord is required to provide you with a written statement of terms to set out your rights and obligations under the Act, as well as any other terms agreed between the Landlord and you. This Agreement is the written statement of terms. You are entitled to receive a copy of the written statement within 14 days of the occupation date.

If, before the introduction of the Act, you had an Assured Shorthold Tenancy relating to the Premises then you will have a ‘Converted Contract’. If you have a Converted Contract then you are entitled to receive a copy of the written statement within six months of the 1st of December 2022.

The written statement can be sent electronically if you have provided an email address for contact.

If you did not receive a copy of the written statement within the above timescales then, for each day after the occupation date that the written statement has not been provided, the Landlord may be liable to pay you compensation, equivalent to a day’s rent, up to a maximum of two months’ rent (unless the failure was intentional in which case you can apply to the court to increase this amount).

At the same time, please be aware that you have the right to seek independent advice either from: your solicitor; the Welsh Government website; or another advice agency, such as Shelter Cymru or the Citizens Advice Bureau, regarding your Contract or dispute resolution.

Disputes regarding this Contract may be determined in the County Court but if you have a problem with the Premises then you should first contact the Landlord or the Managing Agent to try and resolve it.

You have some unalterable rights regarding the Premises, but some of these rights are subject to obtaining the Landlord’s consent. In most circumstances that consent cannot be unreasonably withheld. Terms where consent is required are identified.

You can be held responsible for any anti-social behaviour that takes place in the Premises even if you did not personally cause or commit the anti-social behaviour. Anti-social behaviour includes excessive noise, verbal abuse, physical assault, and domestic abuse (including physical, sexual, psychological, emotional, or financial abuse)

You should not allow the Premises to become overcrowded by allowing people to reside in the Premises beyond the maximum number allowed. Part 10 of the Housing Act 1985 provides the basis for calculating the ‘maximum number allowed’ figure.

You cannot be evicted from the Premises without a Possession Order obtained from the County Court local to the Premises, unless you abandon the Premises. Before the Court can make a Possession Order the Landlord must demonstrate that they have followed the correct procedures and that one of the following situations below applies.

- 1) You have broken at least one of the terms of the Contract (which includes failure to pay rent, engaging in or threatening to engage in anti-social behaviour or other prohibited conduct, or failing to take proper care of the Premises) and it is reasonable to evict the Contract-Holder;
- 2) You are in serious rent arrears (for example where the rental period is a month, at least two months' rent is unpaid);
- 3) The Landlord can provide you with alternative accommodation, and one of the 'Estate Management' grounds under Section 160 of the Act applies, and it is reasonable to evict you;
- 4) Where the Contract falls within Schedule 9B of the Act, you have been given at least two months' notice that you must leave the Premises under Section 186 of the Act;
- 5) Where the Contract incorporates Section 194 of the Act (a Landlord's break Clause), the Landlord has given you notice that you must leave the Premises under Section 194 of the Act, and also;
 - a) There are no restrictions on the Landlord serving you with notice under Section 194 of the Act;
 - b) You are given at least six months' notice that you must vacate the Premises, and that notice was given at least 18 months after the occupation date, and that the fixed term of the Contract was for at least two years – except where the Contract falls within Schedules 8A, 9 or 9C to the Act;
 - c) Where the Contract falls within Schedule 8A to the Act, you were given at least two months' notice that you must leave the Premises;
 - d) Where the Contract falls within Schedules 8A and/or 9 and/or 9C of the Act, you were given the relevant notice that you must leave the Premises and the notice given is the notice that is appropriate to end that type of Contract.

For the avoidance of doubt, it is unlikely that this Contract falls within Schedules 8A, 9, 9B or 9C of the Act.

Whilst you are named in this Contract, anyone else who resides in the Premises with you may obtain a right to succeed the Contract if you die during the Contract.

As well as the Contract, you may be asked to sign the check-in or inventory which will list the Landlord's fixtures and fittings and the other items which the Landlord provides for your use during the Contract. You will also be given copies of the following documents relating to the premises, receipt of which is acknowledged by you when you sign this Contract:

- The Energy Performance Certificate (EPC)
- A current Gas Safety Certificate – if there is a gas supply
- Details of the scheme with which your deposit will be registered including details as to how the Contract-Holder will recover your deposit on your departure
- The Electrical Installation and Condition Report (EICR)

If any of these documents are missing when you come to sign the Contract, please speak with the Managing Agent as these documents are just as important as the Contract itself.

This Contract contains four types of Clauses: Key Terms, Fundamental Terms, Supplementary Terms, and Additional Terms.

Key Matters are the core elements of the Contract and they are set out on page 1.

Fundamental Terms must be contained within the Contract as prescribed by the Act. Certain Fundamental Terms can be altered but they can only be altered in a way that 'improves the position' of the Contract-Holder. However, Section 33 of the Act allows for minor editorial changes so long as the meaning of the Fundamental Term is unchanged. Fundamental Terms that cannot be altered are marked with an (F) next to them and Fundamental Terms that can be altered, as set out above, are marked with an (F+).

Once this Contract has been given to you then the provisions regarding Fundamental Terms, as set out above, apply.

Supplementary Terms are Clauses, set out in regulations made by the Welsh Ministers from time to time, which are also automatically included as terms of the Contract. Supplementary Terms may be altered or removed to benefit either party. Where a Supplementary Term is found within this Contract it will be marked with a (S). If your Contract is a Converted Contract then Supplementary Terms do not automatically apply to your Contract.

If a Fundamental Term or a Supplementary Term has been altered or removed then the Clause in question should be left in the main body of the Contract but a note made in Schedule 5.

Additional Terms are negotiable between the parties and are all the Clauses that are not contained within the Key Terms or Fundamental Terms or Supplementary Terms. An Additional Term cannot conflict with a Key Matter, a Fundamental Term or a Supplementary Term. If your Contract is a Converted Contract then the existing terms of your Contract are Additional Terms and will continue to apply unless they conflict with a Key Matter or a Fundamental Term. If an Additional Term is unfair within the definition of Section 62 of the Consumer Rights Act 2015 then that term will not be binding.
